

PRESS RELEASE

December 10, 2009

INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS REVEALS 'TARP AID ASSISTANCE PROGRAM'

In the aftermath of the world's most challenging financial shifts in currency management, after the September 2008 banking industry crash assisted by Obama's TARP program, more than a year and a quarter later, the INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS Executive Branch (EB) provides aid to see to it and/or meet the strenuous demands TARP was designed for.

Major banking and financial institution executives showed favor and promise, however, lingered in the wings awaiting Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP) credit compensation to support the effectively issued allotments and/or promissory notes issued by Washington in 2008. After one year of patience, the distribution process continues to unfold with promising results displayed by the INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS Executive Branch (EB).

INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS having announced the distribution of more than 350 Billion in Credit Currency Distribution Aid (CCDA) increases governed productivity with awards distributed to the U.S. Credit Union, J.P. Morgan CHASE, the Treasury Department, Russian President Dmitry Medvedev, Queen Elizabeth II, Washington Delegates and more.

The future of the U.S. Credit Union insures incredible effectiveness as the focus on continuing the functional operational of such outstanding support designed to aid Washington with much needed organizational assistance in following up with seeing to it all promised comforting blessings from the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP) receive the currency necessary to continue pushing forward with national as well as global expansion operations

These expansion operations shall provide a 'NEW' currency relief resource to our world population while simultaneously soothing any discomfort previously experienced by fluctuations in our global currency economy.

When asked how soon we will see the effects of this superior INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS CREDCHIT Credit System (CCS) take effect, INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS U.S. Reporting Agency media relations officials stated "Immediately".

Drake Dukatti Dec. 2010

INTERNATIONAL U.S. OPERATIONS